

11:30 am NC Midyear Area Attractions Tour – *Midyear Registration is required.

Meet at Fremont Golf Club at 11:30 am where a lunch will be provided for all tour guests. The tour bus will leave promptly at noon and return to Fremont Golf Club. Enjoy an afternoon of touring the following local businesses.

Hansen–Mueller – Hansen Mueller is an Omaha-based grain trading business founded in 1979 and has grown into an import/export business with 22 locations across the country. In 2017, Hansen -Mueller purchased the 60,000 square foot bagging facility in Fremont for animal and pet food products. Raw material products arrive in bulk and a finished feed is processed and bagged from a 5 to 50lb bags and is shipped off to retail stores.

Valmont Industries, Inc. – Valmont Industries, Inc. is a global leader of engineered products and services for infrastructure and water-conserving irrigation equipment and solutions for agriculture. From lighting and traffic structures to guide the way, to communication towers that keep people connected, to utility structures that power homes and businesses, to irrigation equipment and technology that helps grow the world's food, Valmont Industries manufacture products in over 80 different facilities spread across 6 continents and do business in over 22 different countries.

Lincoln Premium Poultry – Lincoln Premium Poultry is a Nebraska-based company created in collaboration with Costco Wholesale to source and process chickens in Nebraska through local Nebraska farmers. The Lincoln Premium Poultry facility utilizes new and innovative technology to produce high-quality products which meets or exceeds the highest food safety standards.

Merritt Trailers, Inc. – Merritt Trailer Company has been providing Cattlemen the highest quality livestock trailer since 1951. Merritt began by building wooden livestock racks, then moved into steel truck body racks and now produce Americas lightest and largest livestock trailer that is chalked full of Animal welfare features to help the legendary men and women of agriculture deliver the best product to the end consumer.